

A person wearing a dark beanie with a colorful pattern and a backpack is seen from behind, looking towards a busy city street at night. The street is filled with blurred lights from buildings and vehicles, creating a bokeh effect. A white rectangular box is overlaid on the image, containing the word 'REACH' in a stylized font. The 'A' is a triangle, and the 'H' is a square. To the right of the 'H' is a network icon consisting of a central node connected to four other nodes.
